

General: What if I have a need that isn't filled with software on this list?

Order whatever software you need. All software must be installed by IT Support to comply with DOE configuration management policies.

Occasionally, software may cause problems with other software or pose a security risk. If that's the case, IT Support will uninstall the software if unresolvable problems persist. It may be wise to speak with IT Support and ask for suggestions prior to purchasing the software.

Author: David Wallis

Last update: 2004-08-11 10:43